Floor was opened to any member who wanted to speak.

Martha Crowell – let members know that new 55 plus signs would be added to our entrance signs and larger No Solicitation sign would be going up soon. Have had a number of individuals want to buy in our neighborhood who didn't meet age restrictions. Sheryl Slightom suggested a letter be drafted to all area realtors about our CCR's.

Discussion on GVC withdrawal was had. Helen Russo was given recognition for all the hard she has done previously as our GVC representative.

Dee deeLeeuwe expressed concerns about center meridian and possibly members taking care of it. Was advised that it is Pima County's responsibility and they do not allow plantings for safety issues.

Don Fordney, Kathleen Fordney and Bruce Brightman expressed concerns about speeding on La Canoa and maybe getting stop signs, a bike lane or something to combat this. Martha Crowell will contact County about road assessment.

Paula Hatcher brought up legal fees. Was advised that CCVII does have attorney on retainer but have had no issues to warrant any expenditures for legal fees.

Paul Hatcher commented and what a beautiful neighborhood CCVII is but we could use some clean up in the alleys. Martha Crowell will add this to the list of stuff to speak with her county contact.

Martha Crowell brought up the discussion of moving money to a money market or cd to earn more interest. Sheryl Slightom made a motion to give Martha (Treasurer) permission to research move money from checking account to money market or short term cd. Daryl Arnold 2nded motion. Voted and approved by members.

Ron Cocco had some questions about budget-expenses. Discussion was held.

Tina and Del Voth wanted to ask for advice on high pitched noise coming from neighbors' yard. They have contacted the neighbor and have tried to work out a solution to no avail. Discussion was held and possible solutions for them.

Anita Larson asked about garbage pick-up in neighborhood and why Waste Management is coming into CCVII. JuanCarlos Sagastume voiced concerns about Republic service disruption.
